

Are you ready to take the BETA Feed Awareness Week Test?

You could win a £250 shopping voucher to spend with a BETA retail member by ticking the correct answers below. One winner will be drawn at random from all entries submitted with the correct answers. All answers can be found in BETA literature or on the BETA website or social media channels.

1. A horse's stomach is the size of:

- a) A football
- b) A rugby ball
- c) A tennis ball

2. Molasses is used in many feeds to aid palatability?

- a) True
- b) False

3. Haylage is "richer" than hay?

- a) True
- b) False

4. What does EGUS stand for?

- a) Equine gut ulcer syndrome
- b) Equine grazing ulceration syndrome
- c) Equine gastric ulcer syndrome

5. The BETA NOPS feed assurance scheme is a guarantee that a feed is free from naturally occurring prohibited substances.

- a) True
- b) False

6. The word "supplement" is not legally recognised. Instead, supplements are all simply feeds and subject to the same feed law as any big bag of feed.

- a) True
- b) False

Name: Address:

..... Postcode:

Telephone: Email:

- Please tick if you are happy to receive future correspondence from the BETA group
- Please tick if you are happy to receive correspondence from carefully selected equestrian third parties

To the retailer: Please return all completed test sheets to Tina Hustler, BETA, East Wing, Stockeld Park, Wetherby LS22 4AW, by 27 November 2018.