BUSINESS FLEDGLING PACK

Thank you for your enquiry into the business fledgling pack, aimed, as the name implies, to assist new entrants to business in the equestrian industry to find some of the essential information necessary when setting up for the first time.

This pack came out of the wish to assist those intending to enter the industry, but being conscious that membership, and thus full access to all benefits of BETA, could only be offered to established businesses. This pack will, we hope, span the gap and make setting up as an equestrian retailer more straightforward.

If you decide to purchase the pack, you are also entitled for the next year to access advice direct from the BETA office, a service normally only available to BETA members. It is hoped in this way that you will gain a better idea of the benefits of membership and decide to join when you have established your business.

We wish you every success with your business in the future.
